While there is no record to confirm that Ambrocio and Diego were the sons of Ygnacio, there seems to have been no other Aragon in the right time span. The age of there births would indicate that they were born in Santa Fe, but the baptismal registers of that time are gone. Both men and their families seem to have connection with the Albuquerque, Valencia, Corrales and Tome Aragons.

DM 1717 June Bernalillo of Marcial Montoya & Maria Baca has Jose T. Aragon as a witness with his age as 24, his father Ygnacio age 50 was also a witnesses.

Information on Jose Timoteo is based on the following:

Pair married June 24 1717, with witnesses Antonio Montoya & wife Bernarda Baca.(NOTE: Antonio Montoya & Bernarda Baca were padrinos to baptism of Juana Gallegos d/ of Antonia Aragón). The above DM shows a strong family connection between Ygnacio & Jose Timeto. Also, the age of Jose Timoteo Aragon places his birth in 1693, which relates to the following information. The work of John Kessel ATo The Royal Crown Restored@ has the following information:

1. Page 283, lists of colonists date 1-3 Sep 1693, list Ignacio Aragón, wife Sebastiana Ortiz, daughter Maria de Aragón, and daughter Antonia de Aragón.

If I am correct that Josefa Quintana, wife of Jose Timoteo Aragón, is the daughter of Jose de Quintana & Antonia Lujan Dominguez, then Nicolas was a witness to the marriage of his brother's brother-in-law. Also both Ygnacio & Nicolas were living in the Bernalillo area at the same time.
